Introduction

About this policy	This Carrier's Transit Liability Policy consists of: <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) this policy document, and(b) the schedule, and(c) any endorsements that have been applied.
Duty of disclosure	The insured has a legal duty of disclosure when they apply for insurance. This means the insured or anyone acting on the insured's behalf must tell us everything they know (or could be reasonably expected to know) that a prudent insurer would want to take into account in deciding whether: <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) to accept or decline the insurance, and/or(b) the cost or terms of the insurance, including the excess. The insured also has this duty every time their insurance renews and when they make any changes to it. If the insured or anyone acting on the insured's behalf breaches this duty, we may treat this policy as being of no effect and to have never existed. Please ask us if you are not sure whether you need to tell us about something.
Defined words	If a word is shown in bold, it has a specific meaning. There is a list of these words and what they mean in 'Section 9 – Definitions'.
Examples	We have used examples and comments to make parts of this policy document easier to understand. These examples and comments, which appear in italics, do not affect or limit the meaning of the section they refer to.
Headings	The headings in this policy document are for reference only and do not form part of it. They must not be used when interpreting the policy document.

2.1 Carriage of goods liability	A. Carrier's liability We will cover the insured for liability for accidental loss to goods that the insured contracts to carry in connection with the business, provided that the loss happens during the period of insurance while the goods are: <ul style="list-style-type: none">1. in transit anywhere in New Zealand (including any loading and unloading), or2. temporarily housed (either on or off the carrying conveyance) in the normal course of transit, but not at any store, warehouse or holding pen owned or occupied by, or under the control of, the insured, unless solely for the purpose of an "incidental service" as defined by the CCLA. B. Subcontractor's and actual carrier's liability We will cover the insured for liability to pay for accidental loss to goods carried by a subcontractor or actual carrier on the insured's behalf provided that the loss happens during the period of insurance and the subcontractor's or actual carrier's conditions of contract are no more extensive than that of the insured. This extension does not insure the subcontractor's or actual carrier's liability.

- (b) do or say anything that may prejudice our ability to defend the claim against the insured or take recovery action in the insured's name.

7.5 Do not dispose of property

The insured must not dispose of any property involved in the claim until we have given permission to do this.

7.6 Minimise the loss

The insured must take all reasonable steps to minimise the claim and avoid any further loss or liability arising.

7.15 Subrogation

We may assume the insured's legal right of recovery. The proceeds of any recovery will be applied first to the costs of effecting the recovery, then to us for amounts paid for a claim.
